WANT A DEBATE.

Waterville High School Boys Want to Meet P. H. S.

Carl U. Graf entertained a number of his friends Saturday evening. The amusements were debates and progressive flinch.

Dr. Alston Ellis, President of Ohio University, gave a very instructive lecture at the M. E. church last Friday evening on "Education and Citizenship." This is the last of the High School series of lectures.

A number of people from this place attended the Teachers' Institute at Toledo, Saturday.

Supt. E. O. Castle, of the Swanton schools, was a visitor here Sunday.

Leo C. Marshall after a two weeks' visit at this place with friends, returned to Toledo, Monday.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church spent Thursday at the home of Mrs. Jane Hutchinson.

Miss Pearl Gondor is suffering from a severe attack of cold at present.

Rev. and Mrs. McQueen are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby boy at their home.

Frank Nelson and wife have left for Marion, Ind., where they will reside in the future.

Miss Marie Hoffines is recovering from a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Fred Starkweather is recovering from a slight attack of the mumps.

Mary and Eugene Taylor are spending a few days in Toledo.

G. O. Basset and wife attended the I. O. O. F. banquet at Weston, last Friday evening.

The W. H. S. boys are waiting to get a chance to debate the P. H. S. boys. The W. H. S. boys have quarreled enough among themselves. Now they want to quarrel with the P. H. S. boys.

A Night Alarm

Worse than an alarm of fire at night is the brass cough of croup, which sounds like the children's death knell and it means death unless something is done quickly. Foley's Honey and Tar never fails to give instant relief and quickly cures the worst forms of croup. Mrs. P. L. Cordier of Annecy, Ky., writes, "My three year old girl had a severe case of croup; the doctor said she could not live. I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar, the first dose gave a quick relief and saved her life." Refuse substitutes. For sale by C. P. Champany.

Steighride in a Wagonette.

Last Friday night a number of boys and girls of P. H. S. enjoyed a sleighride to the home of Miss Linda Bringman of Lemoyne. Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves hugely. Oliver Davis took first prize in the cake eating contest, Joe Rossbach and Merlin Bowers being tie for second. It was planned for a sleighride but when the time came to go, we were told that sleighing was very poor, but rather than give it up entirely we concluded to go in the wagonette which was rather small for our crowd. The evening was spent in games and music and at midnight we all partook of the sumptuous supper that was served by the ladies. We returned at an early hour Saturday morning. All report a delightful time. Those present were: Misses Helen Bowers, Daisy Schaumleffel, Amy Tefft, Stella Carter, Edna Neifer, Sadie Main, Mamie Webb, Ester Jezzard, Lottie Hayes and Lulu Schlecht. Messrs Percy Hampton, Ray McCaslin, Emery Cobb, Wright Pargellis, Everette Neifer, Myron Carter, Joe Rossbach, Merlin Bowers, Oliver Davis and Milton Dumm of Perrysburg; Johnnie and Linda Bringman, Clara, Susie and Eva Myers of Lemoyne.

DIED WHILE SINGING

"That Will Be Glory for Me," in Church.

The strange and tragic ending of a prominent lady of Eagleville occurred last Sunday night, in the choir of the church of Christ of that village.

Just as the choir sang the last words of the closing hymn, "That Will Be Glory for Me," Mrs. Moore sank to her knees, gasping. She soon lapsed into unconsciousness and died in a short time. She was 36 years of age and was a strong and healthy woman.

The meeting was broken up in disorder and a panic narrowly averted. The woman next to Mrs. Moore attempted to hold her up, but fell over the prostrate body of the dying woman. Drs. Simon and McLain, of Bloomdale, were hastily summoned, but could do nothing when they arrived.

MUST HAVE GOOD ROADS

Rural mail carries in the vicinity of Upper Sandusky, have complained to the department concerning the heavy roads they are compelled to travel in delivering mail. They asked if they might carry the mail on horseback during the muddy season and on bicycles in the summer season. The department notified them that they could do no such thing, but that if farmers could not furnish good roads they would withdraw free rural mail delivery.

Nearly Forfeits His Life.

A runaway almost ending fatally, started a horrible ulcer on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. For four years it defied all doctors and all remedies. But Bucklen's Arnica Salve had no trouble to cure him. Equally good for Burns, Bruises, Skin Eruptions and Piles. 25c at C. P. Champany's Drug Store.

Better Than Gold.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicine I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by C. P. Champany.

MAUMEE VALLEY

Pioneer Association Held Very Interesting Meeting.

The meeting of the Maumee Valley Pioneer association was held in Toledo on Saturday last.

Fifty members of a membership of sixty-three were present and the session was opened with prayer by Rev. G. A. Adams.

President D. K. Hollenbeck cordially welcomed the members and J. L. Pray, secretary, read his report, together with minutes of the last annual meeting of the society. The most interesting feature of the secretary's report was that the society has secured a deed for a small plot of ground upon which Turkeyfoot rock is located.

In the absence of C. W. Evers, the report of the committee on Fort Meigs was read by Mr. Wilson, of Bowling Green. He said the committee had visited the old fort several times, with a view to obtaining options upon 30 acres of the property, but had been unable to do so. He said, however, that an option on 11 1/2 acres, embracing what is known as the Dudley burying ground, had been obtained up a basis of $1,200.

J. M. Wolcott of Maumee, said that if this plot of ground is purchased, it would be feasible to remove the bodies from the other two cemeteries on the site of the old fort to this place, but that it would not be well to abandon the plan to purchase all the property until further effort has been made.

Some one suggested that the government might buy the entire site, but William Corlett pointed out the improbability of this.

C. W. Shoemaker, of the committee on the battle of Fallen Timbers, reported that Daniel F. Cook had deeded to the association a small piece of ground, about 40 feet in diameter, upon which Turkeyfoot rock has been located. It is about forty feet higher up on the hill than the old location of the rock, before it was brought to Toledo for exhibition at the centennial show which did not occur. The committee proposes to enclose the rock with a substantial iron fence to prevent disfigurement by relic hunters. A bronze inscription will also be cast and placed upon the rock.

It was suggested that some time in the future the association may purchase several acres of land surrounding Turkey Foot rock and lay out a park.

J. B. Van Renslaer submitted the report of the committee on Fort Miami. Fred B. Shoemaker has deeded the association a lot covering a part of the site of this fort. Mr. Shoemaker suggested that the association erect a flag pole and keep a flag flying on the site. No action was taken upon this, but Mr. Shoemaker was tendered a vote of thanks. It was suggested that, in the future, the society may purchase an adjoining lot. It will then own the greater part of the site of the fort.

Mrs. J. Kent Hamilton was absent, but her report on the old court house was read by William Corlett. Mrs. Hamilton's report was an ideal word picture of what the old court house will be when the Daughters of the American Revolution acquire the building, to which end they are now working. They propose to fence in the grounds, lay out velvety lawns, adorn the old structure with tablets commemorative of historic events, and fit up rooms for archives and headquarters of historical societies. The Daughters of the Revolution have already accumulated considerable money for acquiring the old court house for a permanent home.

The Soldier Dead of Fort Meigs was the theme of Mrs. Ellen McN. Caspers' report. In connection with it, a letter from the mayor of Petersburg, Va., was read and also a copy of a hitherto unpublished testimonial to the bravery and gallant conduct of the Petersburg volunteers at Fort Meigs. In an inhospitable wilderness they remained twelve months before starting upon their march southward.

J. M. Wolcott of Maumee; Frank Powell of Perrysburg, and D. C. Van Voorhis of Bowling Green, were elected trustees of the association, after which adjournment was taken until afternoon.

The principal features of the afternoon session were addresses by James Austin, Jr., Hon. T. J. Harbaugh and ex-Mayor A. R. Campbell of Bowling Green.

At the Saturday afternoon session of the association a plan was discussed to send delegations from Lucas and Wood counties to Washington to urge an appropriation by Congress for the preservation of historic spots in the Maumee valley. If the appeal to Congress fails, then application for assistance in this work will probably be made to the Ohio General Assembly.

President Hollenbeck of the association, called attention to the fact that during the past ten years Ohio has expended $257,000 for battlefield monuments, not one of which is within the state. Mr. Hollenbeck suggested that the state ought to mark its own battlefields and urged concentrated effort to get an appropriation from the legislature for this purpose.

Commodore Gunckel presented some figures with reference to the disposition of copies of his book on the history of the Maumee valley. Twelve hundred copies were printed. Of these all but 125 have been sold or sent to clubs, newspapers or libraries.

James Austin, Jr., eulogized George Washington and set forth in detail the objects of the Sons of the American Revolution, very similar to those of the Pioneer and Historical association.

Ex-Mayor Campbell of Bowling Green, delivered an eloquent address. The keynote was organization and concentrated effort for the purpose of securing appropriations for the purchase of battlefields and historic burying grounds in the Maumee valley.

Hon. T. J. Harbaugh brought the program to a close with an inspiring address on patriotism.

Lulu and the Toad.

Once upon a time there was a little girl named Lulu. She had a dog and a cat.

The dog's name was Spotty and the cat Tiger.

One morning she got up and Spotty was barking very loud. She could not make out what was the matter.

When Tiger heard the noise she wanted to get out to see what was the matter, too. Lulu soon went out with the cat.

There was out by him a little toad looking very wise at Spotty.

Lulu was very glad when she saw it.

Spotty wanted to slap it, but Lulu would not let him do it.

Once there was a little girl. She lived in a city. Her name was Lulu. One day she went to visit her grandma in the country. It was summer when she went. She went out to play one morning and she saw a toad. She saw one before and she wanted to see how it was made. One of her pets was a dog. His name was Spotty. He saw the toad first. He barked as loud as he could when he saw it. Lulu was on the porch holding her kitten, Tiger. The kitten was asleep in her lap. Lulu wondered what Spotty was barking at. She went to see what it was. It was a little toad.

The Maumee River is a stream of muddy water 180 miles in length. It is where it is because the land slopes in that direction. It runs through the northeastern part of Ind., and through the northwestern part of Ohio.

It rises near Ft. Wayne, Ind. It flows in a northeasterly direction. It is one of the most beautiful rivers in the world, and is sometimes called the "Hudson of the West." The Indians named it, and its name means "Mother of Waters." Its banks are steep in some places and sloping in others. They are not barren and are good for farming where they are not so steep. Sulphur Springs are about three miles from Waterville. Maumee Rapids begin at Waterville and end down at the Maumee Bridge. Some islands are Big Island, which has about 180 acres; Garden Island, Marengo Island, Grassy Island, Nig-
